

SKILLED SPONSORED RESIDENCE STUDENT VISA SUBCLASS 886

MIGRATE TO AUSTRALIA AS A SPONSORED SKILLED PERSON

Ferguson Cannon are Migration Lawyers and Registered Migration Agents (Registered Number 0105779) located on the Sunshine Coast and Brisbane in Queensland, Australia. We specialise in complex and difficult applications.

This visa allows overseas students who have completed their course studies in Australia and holders of certain temporary visas to apply for permanent residency.

This visa uses a points test to select visa applicants with characteristics needed in the Australian labour market.

You must be sponsored by an eligible relative living in Australia or obtain nomination from a participating State or Territory government agency.

You will qualify for this visa if you are in Australia and you are one of the following:

- an overseas student or former overseas student
- a holder of a Skilled – Graduate (subclass 485) visa or Skilled – Recognised Graduate (subclass 476) visa
- a holder of a Trade Skills Training (subclass 471) visa.

To qualify you must:

- be under 45 years of age
- have good English language skills
- have the skills and qualifications that meet the Australian standard for an occupation on the Skilled Occupation List (SOL) and your nominated occupation is classified as either:
 - a 60 point occupation
- or
- a 50 point occupation

The skilled occupation list is a list of skilled occupations that are in need in Australia. Each occupation listed on the list is allocated a points value for use in the visa assessment process.

This visa also requires that either:

- You, your spouse or your interdependent partner have an eligible relative living in Australia who is willing and able to sponsor you
- or

- You have a nomination from a participating State or Territory government agency.

Note: All State and Territory governments in Australia are participating in this visa scheme.

This visa allows you and any secondary applicants included in your visa application to live as permanent residents in Australia.

Australian permanent residents can:

- live and work in Australia on a permanent basis
- study in Australia at school or university
- receive subsidised healthcare through Medicare and the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS)
- access certain social security payments (subject to waiting periods)
- be eligible for Australian citizenship (subject to the residency eligibility criteria)
- sponsor people for permanent residence.

To qualify for this visa you must score 100 points in the points test. Firstly, you have to meet certain basic requirements which are that-

- you need to obtain a positive skills assessment before you lodge your application.. This is an evaluation of your qualifications conducted by a certifying authority nominated by the Department of Immigration to make sure that you are sufficiently qualified for your nominated occupation;
- you are nominated by a participating State/territory or and eligible relative;
- you must have competed in no less than 16 calendar months either a single qualifications requiring at least two (2) academic years study or more than one qualification resulting in a total period of at least two (2) academic years study;
- you pass a health examination;
- you are of good character;
- commit to the Australian values statement

You will then be awarded different points depending on your-

- Age;
- English language ability;
- Nominated skilled occupation;
- Specific work experience;
- Australian work experience;
- Australian qualifications;

- Occupations in demand;
- Community languages;
- Regional study in Australia;
- Partner skills.

Australian Values Statement

If you are aged 18 years or over, you are required to sign an Australian values statement. The statement is included in your visa application form and all applicants aged 18 years and over will need to sign it to confirm that they will respect the Australian way of life and obey Australian laws. Before signing this statement you are required to have read, or had explained to you, material made available by the government on life in Australia which is contained in the Life in Australia book.
